

“Compton Verney Archaeological Walk”

Saturday 2nd July 2022

2 pm to 4.30 pm

Start and finish at Compton Verney, CV35 9HZ

Price: WLHS members: £17.75 (£10 for Compton Verney members)

Non-WLHS members: £19.75 (£12 for Compton Verney members)

Join Hilary Calow, Compton Verney Archaeology Volunteer, as she brings Compton Verney’s archaeological past to life. Hilary will explain how evidence of archaeological activity, including Roman, Anglo Saxon and medieval settlements, has gradually been coming to light. We will also visit Capability Brown’s Georgian Chapel and learn how Compton Verney was turned into an experimental station for smoke screen camouflage during World War Two. Hilary will give a guided tour of the grounds, accompanied by visual aids and the chance to handle archaeological finds. The price includes a cream tea in the grounds of Compton Verney at the end of the tour.

This visit takes place entirely outside. Parking and toilets available at the Welcome Centre. The walk takes place on mostly flat, grassy ground and paths. There are no stiles and all gates are accessible by wheelchairs/scooters. The total distance walked is about 1.5 miles. Compton Verney has slopes for wheelchairs.
