

“Harbury Village and Heritage Centre”

Saturday 20th July 2024

Tours at 9.15 am, 12.20 pm, 3.30 pm

Meet at Harbury Heritage Centre, Harbury Primary School, Mill Street,
Harbury, CV33 9HR

Price: £7.70 (non members price: £9.70). This price includes tea or coffee and refreshments

Take a guided tour of the historic village of Harbury with volunteers from the Harbury Heritage Centre and learn about the history of the village. The tour will include iconic buildings such as the windmill, Wight School (now the community run library and café) and the outside of the 13th century church, the oldest building in the parish. View buildings dating back to the 15th and 16th centuries including the first school, the Wagstaffe School, founded in 1611. Then visit the Harbury Heritage Centre for refreshments and a chance to browse the historical documents in their collection, including photographs and maps.

The venue is fully accessible with free parking. The walking tour will take place around the village, mainly on tarmac footpaths.
