

Exploring Warwickshire's Local History

Warwickshire Local History Society covers the 'old county' of Warwickshire, including Birmingham, Coventry, Solihull and adjacent areas. It was founded in 1965 to promote the study of Warwickshire's local history through talks, outings, events and publications. When you join WLHS your annual subscription entitles you to:

- two issues of the award-winning journal Warwickshire History
- two issues of the society newsletter
- free admission to lectures
- a discounted price for outings to places of historic interest
- involvement in WLHS conferences, workshops and one-off events
- the chance to purchase 'Occasional Papers'
- opportunities to meet members of other local history societies

Applying for Warwickshire Local History Society membership

If you wish to join Warwickshire Local History Society please complete the Application Form and, if possible, the Gift Aid declaration opposite, and the Standing Order on the reverse.
